

Desktop deployment

The Verba Desktop Recorder role/component is installed on the users' desktop computer. This component contains the Verba Screen capture module, which is responsible to record the computer screen on the desktop. The Verba Desktop Recorder component is similar to the Verba Recording Server, where the recorded files are automatically uploaded to the Media Repository server. For further information about the screen capture module, see Screen capturing.