
Built-in user accounts

The system installs with built-in user accounts. Some of these accounts can be invalidated or restricted. The following table summarizes the information about these accounts.

Built-in User Account Name	Description	Roles	Can it be invalidated?	Can it be deleted?
Verba Administrator	This user account is created during install and required to set up the system and the first user(s)	Superuser	Yes	No
Verba System	This user account is created during install without any active role, it is used by the system to reference audit log entries related to system activities, etc. This user account cannot be managed through the UI.	-	No	No
Verba API User	This user account is created during install and required for the system to operate, certain components use this account to connect to the APIs, external applications can also use this account.	System Supervisor, System Administrator	No	No